

This week's writers of the week are:

Zain (Acorns)	For showing an improvement in his phonics and letter formation.
Aseel (Cherry)	For using her digraphs in her writing about Jack and the beanstalk.
Simon (1Yew)	For describing a setting using expanded noun phrases.
Elelta (2Holly)	For planning a new mini adventure based on our class book Traction Man.
Jacob (3Beech)	For correctly identifying and using different features of stories in his own writing.
Ariam (4Elm)	For using fronted adverbials perfectly and paragraphs to organise the events in a diary entry.
Ilias (5Maple)	For trying to include all the features of a suspense story into his writing.
Pelumi (Year 5)	For writing a thrilling introduction and build up to a suspense story .
Natasha (6Oak)	For using her imagination to produce a fantastic Greek Myth.
Lara (6Ash)	For creating a wonderfully detailed plan for creating her own Greek Myth

Congratulations children!
